Clients look to Josh in planning their personal, financial, business, and family matters. In particular, Josh works with clients to construct and implement estate plans to best meet their needs and transfer their wealth as efficiently as possible. He also has the experience necessary to walk his clients through the legal requirements and asset transfer process for an estate or trust administration. Josh’s practice further focuses on corporation and LLC formation and maintenance, real estate transactions, and agricultural law issues. Josh’s practice allows him to proactively assist individuals, and he has enjoyed building trusted relationships with his clients.

Josh was born and raised in rural Nebraska. He met his wife, Jill, in college, and they moved to Salina in 2009. They enjoy spending time with their two young children, Elizabeth and Luke.
